He that sows thorns should never go barefoot.—Poor Richard's Almanac.

A serious crisis has been reached in the work of raising the Maine. Of the original appropriation there now remains barely sufficient to continue the work for four days. Already expert engineers and skilled workmen have been discharged and unless the additional appropriation is made immediately available the elaborate organization will be destroyed, involving great financial sacrifice and indefinite delay in the work.

The House of Representatives by a vote of 188 to 159 decided in favor of San Francisco and against New Orleans as the city in which an exposition to celebrate the opening of the Panama canal in 1915 shall be held. This vote was taken on a roll call to determine whether the San Francisco resolution or the New Orleans bill should have consideration in the House. On a final vote the San Francisco resolution was passed by a vote of 259 to 43.

The signatures of 800 ministers of Massachusetts are fixed to a remonstrance against the further increase of the navy, which was sent last week to Congressman Samuel W. McCall for presentation in the House of Representatives at Washington. The petition terms the present system of armed peace a hindrance to industrial progress, the cause in part of the high cost of living and a standing contradiction to the fundamental ideas of religion. It urges the appointment and employment of the peace commission, already authorized by Congress and urges the United States to lead the nations in the limitation of armaments.

Ex-Warden Bernes O. Norton Evidently Not to Suffer From Ennui in His New Business at Belfast.

The Waldo county Herald gives the following description of ex-Warden Norton's new business at Belfast: "The Herald representative made a call on the Norton-Pillsbury Co., the new concern doing business at the stand formerly owned by E. R. Connor. The firm consists of B. O. Norton and J. C. Pillsbury. As we approached the building we noted on the exterior two placards. One said 'Horses for sale,' the other 'Shoats for sale. But this range of business from hair to bristles does not cover the field of operation by this new concern by a very large margin. First of all, they have one of the best locations for the business of the character they propose to carry on to be found in the city, and they now have in stock a very large supply of carriages, supplemented by sleighs, harnesses, and stable furnishings. In addition to this, they will handle both western and native meats, as jobbers.

We also learn that Mr. Pillsbury will travel over a portion of Waldo county lobbying provisions, flour and sugar, for the firm of T. R. Savage & Co., of Bangor, the well known wholesale grocers. So in the jobbing department will be found meats, provisions, flour, sugar, etc. In the horse department, native horses will be bought and sold, and it is intended to make this an important branch of the business. For the present, they will buy of country produce, hides, pelts, and wools, and Mr. Norton showed us over a thousand sheep skins they had recently purchased from the farmers, and said he knew of at least a thousand more. We began to rub our eyes to see if we were awake for we didn't suppose there had been 2,000 sheep for slaughter in this county in a long, long time.

As the business gets adjusted, the firm intends to purchase more or less country produce, when the market is right, Mr. Norton especially mentioning that later they would probably handle apples. With Mr. Pillsbury's experience on the road, his knowledge of the grocery business, Mr. Norton's experience in handling carriages, sleighs and harnesses, it would seem that the firm is starting out well equipped to do an increasing and profitable business, and the Herald wishes them success."

A House membership of 391, as at present, was the apportionment plan agreed upon by the Republican caucus in Washington last Thursday. This means that Maine is to lose one of her Congressmen.

Former Rockland Pastor and Wife Celebrate 20th Wedding Anniversary in Oregon.

Rev. Robert Sutcliffe and wife, formerly of this city, celebrated their wedding anniversary in Cottage Grove, Oregon, Friday, Jan. 13. From the report which appeared in the Cottage Grove Leader we quote the following: The membership of the Methodist Episcopal church of which Mr. Sutcliffe is pastor and a number of outside friends planned a most delightful celebration of this happy anniversary. In the presence of a very large number of members of the church, at the hour of 9 o'clock to the strains of the wedding march Rev. and Mrs. Sutcliffe entered the hall, flower girls striding the way with flowers and the party halted under the great bell where was pledged anew by Rev. Sutcliffe and wife, the vows to which they assented just a score of years previously, the pretty and impressive ring ceremony being conducted by the district superintendent of the Methodist church, Dr. J. T. Abbott, of Eugene. At the conclusion of the ceremony, Supt. Abbott delivered a brief, but eloquent address appropriate to the occasion, reviewing the twenty years of useful, happy married life of Rev. and Mrs. Sutcliffe, congratulating and wishing them many happy returns of the day.

"At the conclusion of the interesting program came the presentation of the gifts, flowers, a beautiful hand-painted chocolate set and other equally as handsome pieces of china ware, the presentation address being delivered in a charming manner by Mrs. F. D. Wheeler. Rev. Sutcliffe responded in his ever graceful and pleasing manner, but was noticeably affected by the great hospitality, cordiality and fervent esteem manifested on the part of his congregation and friends for himself and wife. He stated that in his many years of labor in the ministry never had his lot been cast in a more pleasant place, or among a more grateful, whole-souled and cordial people. Then in conclusion came the excellent luncheon, dainty and refreshing, which was served in a most charming manner by the ladies of the church.

"Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cook, of Eugene, were out-of-town guests."

KNOX LOSES ONE

Under the Proposed Reapportionment of the Representative Districts.

The apportionment committee of the Maine Legislature met Tuesday night and adjourned to meet in three weeks, when the reports of the redistricting of the 151 representative districts will be made.

The unit was reached by dividing the census of Maine 742,371, by the total of 152, the number of representatives and senators, which fixes it at 4,078. By this Cumberland gains one representative and Oxford and Aroostook gain one, while Hancock, Knox and Washington lose one each.

The committee has held several meetings and they will now get to work in the 151 representative districts of the 16 counties to redistrict the state, which report will be made three weeks from last Tuesday.

WEDDING WAS SURPRISE

Dr. Belle S. Ayers, Formerly of Rockland Marries a Man From Missouri.

The following wedding report, of interest to many Knox county readers, is republished from the Citronelle, Alabama, Call of Jan. 27.

A marriage which came as quite a surprise to people here was solemnized last Thursday evening at five o'clock. The contracting parties were Dr. Belle S. Ayers of Citronelle and T. J. Denny of near Golden City, Mo. Mr. Denny had dropped in a few days before but so many come in during the winter that no one suspected his purpose, or at least but few did. The ceremony was performed at the home of Dr. Ayers, Rev. Rowe officiating. Only a few of the relatives and more intimate friends of Dr. Ayers were present.

While Mr. Denny was here only a few days he made the very best kind of an impression and there was not a word of objection heard to the marriage except for the fact that it took Dr. Ayers away from Citronelle. She came here from Rockland, Maine, several years ago, and built the Invalids Home. By her untiring energy and ability, and by the real kindness that was in her heart outside of medical pride, she built up a nice patronage which would have grown year after year could she have given it her attention. It never made any difference to Dr. Ayers whether she was called professionally or not, she was always ready to assist the sick. She did a lot of advertising for Citronelle and that too will be missed. Mr. Denny is a prosperous farmer, making a specialty of stock raising and fancy poultry. His flock of different breeds took ten prizes at the Missouri state fair last fall, and he always gets more than his share of prizes wherever he exhibits.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny left yesterday morning for their northern home and the best wishes of everyone in Citronelle went with them for a happy and prosperous life.

Seth A. Loring, formerly submaster of Rockland high school, has been elected submaster of the Somerville, Mass., Latin School. The Boston Globe publishes a sketch and portrait of Mr. Loring, but the latter will not be speedily recognized because of the fact that he has cultivated a thriving moustache since leaving Rockland. The Globe says: "He will receive $1300 for the first year. The high school committee which recommended him to the school board was enthusiastic in its praise of Mr. Loring's abilities as a teacher."

Old fashioned poetry, but choicely good. —Isaac Walton.

Boys of Switzerland

Our cot was sheltered in a wood,
And near a lake's green margin stood;
A mountain bleak behind us frowned,
Whose top the snow in summer crowned,
But pastures warm and rich to boot
Lay smiling at the mountain's foot;
There first we frolicked, hand in hand,
Two infant boys of Switzerland.

When scarcely old enough to know
The meaning of a tale of woe,
'T was then by mother we were told,
That father in his grave lay cold,
That livelihoods were hard to get,
And we too young to labor yet,
And tears within her eyes would stand
For her two boys of Switzerland.

CONCERNING OUR RAILROADS

What State Assessors Found, as Shown in Report Asked For by Last Legislature.

A detailed report concerning the valuation of all railroad property in Maine has just been submitted by the state assessors. The following details are given concerning railroads in Knox county:

Limerock Railroad—This is a railroad operated exclusively for freight in connection with the operations of the Rockland-Rockport Lime Co. Its property is entirely dependent upon that of the Lime Company. The percentage of the expense is small compared with other railroads and the net earnings large. The capital stock is $450,000 and the funded debt $400,000. The rate of interest on this stock is four per cent and dividends of four and one-half per cent were paid on the stock in 1910. The earnings of this road apparently would justify a higher valuation than we have reported, but a considerable portion of its ways and structures are of a perishable nature and the depreciation is rapid, and so we regard our valuation as reasonable.

Georges Valley Railroad—This is a railroad line of 8.51 miles extending from the town of Union to the town of Warren, where it connects with the Maine Central Railroad. The stock of this railroad is reported as $100,000, and the bonds $50,000. No dividends are paid upon the shares and they have no quotable value. The value we have placed upon this property represents a capitalization of its average net earnings covering a period of several years.

Rockland, South Thomaston & St. George Railway—This line is 3.917 miles in length. The capital stock is $122,400 and funded debt is $10,075. Its value as an earning proposition is yet to be demonstrated.

Rockland, Thomaston & Camden—This road has a main line mileage of 24.67 miles. The capital stock is $400,000 and funded debt $300,000. This capitalization, however, includes gas and electric light property but our reported valuation includes only the railroad property. The dividend rate on shares in 1910 was five per cent, and interest on bonds four per cent. The most of the stock is held in Maine, or to be exact, $394,000. The earning power of this property is fully established.

THE LEGISLATURE

(From our Special Correspondent)

Augusta, Me., Feb. 6.

Though the fifth week of the Legislature saw many new measures introduced, the number is still only about two thirds as large as two years ago for the same period. Despite the decreased amount of work the committees have ground out a smaller proportion of what they have had on hand.

Numerous remonstrances have been received from Hancock county against the setting off of Stonington and Isle au Haut to Knox county.

Among the new things before the legislature are:
By Representative Davis of Yarmouth—To authorize municipal officers to require a street railway to give more service to the public and giving the railway an appeal to the railroad commissioners.

By Representative Allen of Jonesboro—To require that manual training be taught in at least one of the Maine Normal schools, and for State aid to high schools which have manual training courses.

By Representative Littlefield of Bluehill—To require that women committed to the insane asylums shall be accompanied on the journey, unless her father, husband, brother or son is with her.

By Representative Boman of Vinalhaven presented a petition from 21 fishermen from that town relating to sealing of herring. Mr. Boman also offered a remonstrance signed by 39 residents of North Haven against a close time on lobsters.

By Representative Otis of Rockland—To extend charter of Lincolnville Water Co. two years; and to amend charter of Island Cottage company.

By Representative Burdett of Union—To prohibit taking eels from St. George river except by hook and line or spear, in the town of Warren.

By Representative Mitchell of Kittery—For lobster fishermen to pay $1 license to commissioner of sea and shore fisheries, the license to be subject to forfeiture, and violators to be fined $50 or imprisoned 30 days.

The fisheries contest promises to be one of the lively subjects of the session. The packers want a free sealing bill, to give them the right to go where they please and get herring. Another group, mostly small fishermen, want a prohibition of the sealing, and a law passed to forbid any form of herring catching except by weirs. Some people go so far as to present bills and petitions for a law to forbid any herring catching in weirs. The middle ground is taken by some, which would allow both seines and weirs, and there are various projects and proposals for regulation of the size of the fish that must be discarded or may be kept. It is safe to say that 90 per cent of the members of the Legislature are ignorant as far as personal knowledge of the sea fisheries questions and their merits. The disposition among those members is to let the seacoast men say what they want, and then give it to them. Of course there is also the man (never absent from the Legislature) who forms decided opinions on subjects of which he knows little, but those men soon find that while they may get a hearing they do not convince anybody.

The first round in the fisheries contest was won by the advocates of protection, when the committee reported that the bill for the protection of scallops ought to pass. That is generally understood as indicating the disposition of the committee, and the line along which it is apt to view things.

The lobster dispute, in regard to close time on lobsters, and regulation of the length of those which may be taken and kept in possession, is regarded by most of the members as a part of the general seacoast proposition, and is likely to receive consideration along the lines of general fishing legislation.

It is understood here that the Democratic economy policy was enunciated on Saturday, Feb. 4, in an editorial in the Waterville Sentinel. It speaks of the "itching palms," and asks:

"Is it not about time that the wholesale raiding of the pockets of the people be stopped? If the Democratic promise of retrenchment is to be fulfilled, it is not clear that the legislative pruning knife must sink deeply into appropriation resolves which are advocated in the name of charity? How can a Democratic legislature, pledged to retrenchment and under promise to effect economy, give consent to any new undertakings which are to all intents and purposes local in their service and private in their nature?"

The hearing on the bill to make a general new medical law was held by the judiciary committee on Feb. 1. Attorney Harry R. Virgin and Dr. Seth Gordon of Portland appeared for the petitioners and wanted the forbidding of anybody but a registered physician prescribing medicine or using the title "Dr." This was opposed by Walter J. Gilpatrick of Saco on behalf of the osteopaths and Mark A. Barwise of Bangor for the Spiritualists, both of whom were satisfied with the law that forbids any but a registered physician prescribing poisons or dangerous drugs, and would be glad to see a law compelling practitioners of every kind to use signs specifying what kind of practice they undertake, whether dentistry, osteopathy, or anything else. Several others had something to say on the subject.

Senator Staples of Knox county succeeded in getting his resolution adopted in favor of San Francisco as the site for the Panama Canal exposition.

The hearing on the public utilities bill has been set for March 2. Other hearings already assigned take that part of the legislative work to as late as March 7.

The Knox county hospital hearing has been reassigned and will be held on Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 7.

Hon. Herbert L. Shepherd of Rockport was in the city last Friday on business at the State House.

F. E. Doyle of Millinocket and Roscoe Eddy of Bar Harbor appeared before the legal affairs committee Feb. 1, in favor of the bill to prevent accident insurance forfeiture through failure to notify the company.

Feb. 9 is the date set for the Senate debate and vote on re submission.

The State Board of Health has issued orders for the reporting by physicians and householders of known or suspected cases of infantile paralysis. The board's circular, announcing the order, contains the statement that the disease is contagious, and also that it is more prevalent in Maine than has been supposed.

The appropriations committee has reported favorably on an appropriation bill for the 1911 salaries of the State officials.

The committee on taxation is to give a hearing on Wednesday of this week on the proposition to adopt the income tax amendment to the United States constitution.

Representative Packard has presented an act to amend an act relating to the police court of Rockland so that the judge may be appointed from any place in the county and not necessarily from the city of Rockland. The argument in behalf of such action is that if the municipal court is to be maintained as a county institution, with expenses paid from the county treasury, the presiding judge should not be limited to any one town. There have been reports that Judge Hurley is to resign as soon as the amendment takes effect, and that Judge C. K. Miller of Camden is to be appointed to fill the vacancy, but the idea is understood to meet with no held up, to be engaged in half an hour, and if that settled the matter there would be no cause for anxiety but the printing takes more time.

Though the House and Senate officers are doing their best, many bills and resolutions are being sent to the wrong committees. Members have a way of sending measures to committees where they think they will receive the most kindly consideration, instead of sending them to the committee especially created to handle that class of legislation. This has fostered a jealousy among the committees which crops out from time to time. A case in point is the reference of the omnibus automobile bill. It is essentially a bill to tax automobiles, and would ordinarily go before the committee on taxation. It contains clauses however which provide for the distribution of the fund created among the state roads already built, and can therefore, with a perfect propriety go before the committee on state lands and state roads. The bill came into the Senate sent to the committee on ways and bridges, of which Senator Donigan is chairman. The House referred it to state lands and state roads, and the bill is held up while the committees reached an agreement as to which committee shall have it. Nearly all of the committee reports received thus far have been reassignments to other committees of measures which the reporting committees did not care to consider.

The full significance of these delays will not be realized until the big fights get into the two branches of the Legislature and the financial measures which are slowly accumulating in the House, are taken up for consideration. The legislature will doubtless get through the tangle in some manner, but no one believes for a moment that the "short session" dream of the leaders can be realized.

A LAGGING LEGISLATURE

Sessions Will last Into April Unless It Moves Faster and Stops Wrangling.—Short Session Dream is Over.

(Lewiston Sun—Ind. Dem.)

Unless some of the loose ends now dragging are caught up in the next three weeks, the 75th Legislature will be in session on Patriot's Day. The heavy work in the House and Senate, the long debates, contested committee reports and other matters which require time, have not made their appearance as yet, but they are as sure to come as are the warm spring days. Just now the committee are doing the work, but every day's work they do only piles up more for the House and Senate. Those two bodies are not now, and will not in the future, be able to digest these matters.

Up to the present time no measures have been passed to be engrossed in the Senate, though many have reached the point where they should have taken that step. That means that some day some one will get after them and pass a bunch which the printing office cannot print in two weeks and which cannot go through the hands of the en-

There will be a special meeting of the third degree staff of Knox Lodge, I. O. O. F., tomorrow evening at 7.30.

The meeting of the managers of the Old Ladies Home which was to have been held last week, was postponed for one month.

The official trial of the new torpedo boat destroyer Trippe is expected to take place on the Rockland course the week of Feb. 20.

The Republican caucuses are scheduled for next week—the ward caucuses Wednesday evening and the mayorality caucus Thursday evening.

Miss Addie B. Young of this city, who has been attending the Rockland Commercial college, has completed the study of shorthand and typewriting.

The schooner William R. Huston was sold by the United States Marshal at public auction at Atlantic wharf Saturday forenoon. The purchaser was S. T. Mudgett. The vessel had been libelled by a Boston towboat company.

Miss Edna Ferrin of this city, who has been employed as stenographer in the City National Bank for the past three years, now has a position in the same capacity in the office of the managing editor of the Lewiston Journal. Miss Abbie Doak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Doak, and well known in this city, has entered the employ of the City National Bank.

"The best play of the season," was the united opinion of the New York critics regarding the merits of Joseph Weber's novelty drama "The Climax" by Edward Locke which comes to Rockland Theatre tomorrow night. "The Climax" is a very simple little story of Bohemian life in the great metropolis, but the intensity of its very humanity is so convincing that it appeals to the heart of the most base. A company of exceptional ability will be seen in the different roles.

"The Doctor" was repeated Saturday evening at Camden opera house to a lonesome audience of about 50 persons. The travelling conditions were very bad and few persons were abroad in Camden or elsewhere that evening. After all expenses have been paid, including the transfer of the talent, John Gray's whiskers, the duelling pistols and other paraphernalia, the members of the cast will have very little to spend in riotous living. The play was well presented and apparently, much enjoyed.

The funeral of Harry S. Sleeper took place at his late home Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Tillinghast officiating. The high esteem in which he was held was manifested by the large attendance of friends and abundance of beautiful flowers. The pall bearers were five members of the office staff of the Rockland-Rockport Lime Co.—Robert U. Collins, Edward S. Levenson, Richard A. Rhodes, J. Fred Knight, Joseph Emery and Edward R. Veazie. The remains were placed in the receiving tomb.

Roses, carnations, lilies, violets, Roman hyacinths, etc. Potted plants, cyclamen, primroses, Dutch hyacinth, etc., in bloom at the Mother greenhouses. 9-10

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a public supper Wednesday night at the Methodist vestry at 5.30, at 25 cents. Fish chowder, baked beans, etc.

H. B. Webber has bought from Charles H. Haskell a lot on Clarendon street, where he will erect a fine modern house the coming season.

The escallop supper at the Y. M. C. A. rooms Saturday evening, Feb. 25, is worth bearing in mind. The ladies will serve tea in the afternoon.

The Syndicate dancers will take the 6.40 car for Glen Cove tonight, going this early in order not to miss the supper which will be served at 7 o'clock.

Oriental Commandery, K. T. of Bridgeport, has invited the commandery to be its guest on St. John's Day. It has not been decided what action will be taken.

The Ladies Guild of St. Peter's church will meet in the parish room Thursday afternoon at 2.30. Mrs. W. O. Fuller will read a paper on "Oberamagau," followed by a short musical program. Each member will take a guest.

J. H. Meserve's new Ford model T Roadster arrived this week from Detroit, Mich. It is a 20 h. p., 4 cylinder, and is conveniently arranged for the delivery of ice cream. It was ordered through the agency of E. O. Philbrook.

Forty of the city's business men dined at Bert Ames' cafe last night, thoroughly enjoying a supper of oysters and lobster salad. This cafe has recently been thoroughly overhauled, papered and painted white, making it one of the neatest lunch rooms in the city.

The Women's Mission Circle of the church of Immanuel will hold its regular meeting in the church parlors Wednesday at 3.30 p. m. In addition to the regular program Rev. C. A. Knickerbocker will address the meeting. All women of the parish are cordially invited to be present.

The Rockland, Thomaston & Camden Street Railway office is waiting station. The office is soon to be transferred to the quarters in the same block recently vacated by the Rockland-Rockport Lime Co. The Street Railway will also have use of the office now occupied by the Camden & Rockland Water Co., which will move into the Street Railway's present quarters.

The checker world stood aghast a few days ago when this paper announced that W. L. Cleaves had made an even break with G. K. Merrill, the hitherto undefeated local champion. "Wait," said the friends of Mr. Merrill. Their confidence was not misplaced, for the rivals had another session the past week, when Mr. Cleaves succeeded in getting two draws out of 10 games played. Next!

This section has experienced a variety of weather in the past few days that savors somewhat of the old-fashioned winter. Last Thursday there was a northeast snow storm that left some formidable drifts. Saturday morning a drizzling rainstorm came on and the streets were flooded with water and slush. No sooner were rubber boots put in commission, however, than the mercury went down the chute and everything was frozen as tight as a drum. February is the shortest month of the year, but thus far there has been lots of it.

Now that the police judgeship has been made interest centers on the inspector of lime casks. A dozen or so candidates were in the field after election but they have gradually simmered down to four—Henry Lothrop, Capt. F. C. French, Ralph W. Richards and B. C. Perry of the Old County Road. Although the appointment is not likely to be made before midsummer, it is said that the busy bees are already buzzing in Gov. Pleasants' ear. Now is the time to register your name, and while you are doing it don't forget to put in one for some compromise candidate.

A personal letter from J. P. Armbrust of Vinalhaven, dated Barbados, Jan. 25, and written at the close of a delightful fortnight's stay in the West Indies, announced his intention of making a trip to Trinidad and Demerara, descriptions of which will figure in the interesting series of letters which he is contributing to this paper during his winter tour. A future letter will deal with Barbados, which Mr. Armbrust is to revisit upon his return from South America. He pronounces it the best island of the lot, and other Americans apparently agree with him for there are many spending the winter there.

County Attorney Howard appears before the committee on Towns at the State Capitol tomorrow afternoon in behalf of the taxpayers of South Bristol, who have petitioned that their section of the town be set off and incorporated. South Bristol is a thriving locality with some progressive views of its own, and the claim is made that it is utterly unable to secure the privileges that are in keeping with the amount of taxes it pays. The residents are obliged to travel 10 miles to vote, and high school students travel nine miles. Mr. Howard is counsel for South Bristol, and the petitioners may rest assured that they will have the matter eloquently and logically presented.

The matter of widening and improving Sea street again received consideration from the city council at its last meeting of the fiscal year last night. Alderman Black presented an order calling for a committee of conference, consisting of one delegate from the city council and one named by the Limerock Railroad and abutting land-owners, who shall suggest proper amounts for land damages. In the event they are unable to agree a third member of the committee shall be appointed, the verdict of that committee to be final. The order was passed. Alderman Black's order for re-taking the city's census passed the upper board, but the Common Council failed to concur, and the proposition was lost.

Dickey's personally conducted party to Washington, D. C., will leave Rockland in about four weeks. This annual tour has been planned to give one of the most ideal outings, at the lowest possible rates. Mr. Dickey accompanies the party and in this manner, all the hard part of the traveling is removed, with all details looked after by the conductor. Any information will be gladly furnished on application to Mr. Dickey at Belfast.

The New York 5 and 10 Cent Store has received a check for $1438.35 from the Middlesex Mutual Fire Insurance Co. of Concord Mass. in settlement of insurance claims. This was the first settlement. E. G. Moran is local agent for this company.

MISS BERNICE WINSLOW

Frances Bernice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcena B. Winslow, died yesterday afternoon at her home on Limerock street, after a year's illness of tuberculosis, aged 20 years. She had been falling rapidly for several weeks, but the end came quite unexpectedly. Her sufferings in the final stage of the disease were severe, but she bore them heroically, and the many callers who visited her during the last weeks were received with the same cheerful greeting. That she was suffering from a fatal malady was known to her nearly a year ago, but all propositions looking toward treatment in a sanitarium were gently turned aside with the reply that she wished to spend her remaining days within the family circle. And there she received the most devoted care that parents and friends could give. During the last Christmas season she worked untiringly to fashion the gifts which would be the last which she would ever make, and when the holiday season had passed her vitality and ambition had also gone. She will be held in fond remembrance by an unusually large circle of friends and sorrowing relatives. Miss Winslow is survived by her parents and one brother, Marcena B. Winslow, Jr. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m.

SCALLOP SHELLS: "HELP!"

A unique method of lobbying has been adopted by the fishermen who are anxious that scallops along the Maine coast should be better protected. Each member of the Legislature Thursday morning found upon his desk a clean white scallop, decorated with the single word, "Help," typewritten upon a piece of white paper and pasted upon the shell. The shells are fine souvenirs of the coast, make excellent ash trays or match receivers and will doubtless be treasured by those that have received them long after the printed matter distributed in the two chambers during this session has passed into oblivion.—Kennebec Journal.

Don't forget to patronize the apron booth at the Food Fair. Aprons for long, short, lean or lank—it makes no difference. There are 500 in the lot.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank the kind friends who arranged for and took part in the benefit concert given for me at the Highlands Jan. 28. I also wish to thank all who attended and helped to make it a complete success.

Remaining in the Rockland Postoffice Feb. 4, 1911.

Published by Authority.

Persons calling for letters in the following list will please say they are advertised, otherwise they may not receive them.

Free delivery of letters by carriers at the residence of owners may be secured by observing the following suggestions:

First—Direct letters plainly to the street and number of the house.

Second—Head letters with the writers full address, including street and number, and request answer to be directed accordingly.

Third—Letters to strangers or transient visitors in a town or city, whose special address may be unknown, should be marked in the upper left hand corner with the word "Transient."

Fourth—Place the postage stamp on the upper right hand corner, and leave space between the stamp and the direction for postmarking without interfering with the writing.

STATE CHAT

Dennysville lays claim to being the "richest Maine town," yet it has been incorporated only 15 years.

Representative Eugene V. Allen of Jonesboro, Democrat, who represents the Machias, Roque Bluffs, Wesley and Centerville class and is the only minister in the 75th legislature, has accepted a call to Eastport.

The senior class of Gardiner high school has voted to take a trip to Washington, D. C., this spring. The class cleared $175 by means of a recent entertainment and this amount will be the net egg towards the expenses of the trip.

Bangor and Brewer citizens are turning out handsomely to assist the Salvation Army in its effort to build a working man's hotel. The activity of the Laymen's Federation is especially commendable. All the churches are interested.

Colby College shows a gain of 20 per cent in the number of students over last year. A strenuous recommendation of this institution, to the country boy of limited means, is the fact that the college furnishes employment to its students to the amount of $5000 a year.

Capt. George F. Barlow, who has just retired from the command of the Bath five-master "Governor Brooks," has purchased a farm at Grand River, N. E. He declares that he intends to live a quiet and comfortable life, far from the dangers of the sea, the rest of his days.

Kennebunkport claims the only bank with clock in Maine. The farm is known for miles around as the "Clock Emmons place," and has been called by that name since the big clock was installed in the top of the barn 20 years ago. It is a landmark for miles around.

The amount of money expended by the United States government up to the first of January for new buildings in the Portland Armory district was approximately $220,000 and many of these structures have been erected at Fort Williams, the headquarters of the district.

An example of the possible experience of the far north county physician is seen in the accomplishment of a Northern Maine doctor, who made a ride of 85 miles in a trip to visit a sick man in a logging camp. The next morning with the mercury 14 degrees below zero and a stiff wind blowing, he set off to visit another patient, ten miles away.

Seventy-eight pupils have been excluded from the schools of Portland and Kennebec counties on account of physical condition. The medical board has examined 7044 children and 3000 were found to have some form of physical trouble. The matter of providing open air school rooms for tubercular children was discussed at the last meeting of the board.

A Bangor dealer received a hog which weighed 638 pounds dressed, from a Levant farmer the other day. Bangor farmers and dealers declare that they have seen but one hog which approached this porker in size. That was raised by Eben Wheeland, a few years ago, and weighed about 700 pounds, and a little rising 600 when dressed.

The first organization to take up the propagation of alfalfa growing is the Keweenaw Jersey Creamery. At their annual meeting of the directors appropriated money to buy alfalfa seed. By their usual time is distributed among the patrons who would raise alfalfa under the advice of an expert. Thus the creamery hopes to build up the dairy business on the sure foundation of home grown rations.

Recently a package of newspapers was brought into the Biddeford post-office. The package looked suspicious and the postmaster inquired if there was anything besides papers in the bundle. The woman who brought the bundle replied that there was not. An investigation was made after the woman departed and a pound of salt pork was found wrapped up in the newspapers. The pork went into the fire and the papers were forwarded to their destination.

Kennebunk claims the palm as the original cold storage proposition. Recently a partition in the summer home there, of Lawyer John G. Smith of Saco, they came upon the skeleton of a rooster. As the house was built early in 1800, and had never been remodelled, there is no other explanation than that this house had contained poultry for 111 years. How it came there, of course will never be known. No one remembers the rooster and no one is now anxious to claim him, or claims to have lost a rooster 111 years ago.

Pneumonia Follows a Cold

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar, which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says, "It beats all the remedies I have ever used. I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me." No opiates, just a reliable household medicine.

For sale by A. W. Wiley, Vinahaven, Me.; F. H. Call, Rockland, Me.; H. Newman, Warren, Me.

Sedentary habits, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, are the most common causes of stomach troubles. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be well again. For sale by Norcross Drug Stores and W. H. Kittredge, Druggists.

SOUTH UNION

Mrs. A. E. Williams is at Tenan's Harbor, called there two weeks ago, to care for her mother who is sick.

Edmund Harding improved the sledding last week in having his wood hauled from the island.

Obituary.

WILLIAM E. KIRKPATRICK

The remains of William E. Kirkpatrick, who died in Worcester, Mass., arrived here Monday night. At the residence of his brother, Charles G. Kirkpatrick, Wednesday, prayers were offered by Rev. Edward Murnane of St. Bernard's church. The interment was in the family lot at Sea View cemetery. Deceased was born in Rockland in 1862, a son of Edgar C. and Ada B. (Spear) Kirkpatrick. He learned the stonecutters' trade at which he worked for some time in the plant near the old depot. Subsequently he worked in Cambridge and for a number of years in the granite business for himself at Milford, N. H. While there he suffered a relapse after an attack of grippe and became a victim of paresis. From Milford Mr. Kirkpatrick removed to Worcester, where he worked for a short time as driver of a grain team. His mental condition became such that he was cared for in a sanitarium. He was a member of the Cambridge Catholic church and the stonecutters' union. He is survived by his wife, and one brother, Charles C. Kirkpatrick of this city; and four sisters, Mrs. L. O. Waterhouse of San Francisco, Mrs. Frank Keyes of Worcester, Mrs. A. Jerome of Worcester, and Miss Carrie Kirkpatrick of Portland. Mrs. Jerome and Miss Kirkpatrick accompanied the remains to Rockland.

MRS. ELVIRA W. COBB

Mrs. Elvira W. Cobb, widow of the late William Cobb, passed away at Union Jan. 26, at the age of 86 years, 7 months and 2 days. She was born in Frankfort and taught in the public schools before her marriage. Mr. Cobb was proprietor of the Rural House for many years in Union, and with her united efforts made a cheerful resting place for many a weary traveler. Her life had been a busy and interesting one. She was always interested in religious and educational movements and did all in her power for advancement of the poor. She was a member of the Congregational church of that place and the pastor, Rev. Mr. Benner, spoke of her life. The male quartet rendered two beautiful selections. Her brother, Mr. Snow of Frankfort, and two nieces were present at the funeral.

CAPT. HENRY J. CLARK

The community was saddened Thursday morning, Jan. 26, to hear of the death of Capt. Henry J. Clark of Fulton street. Although he had been failing gradually during the past few months, the end came quite unexpectedly. Deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Clark of Owl's Head. Capt. Clark's early life commenced by following the sea. He had command of several vessels, the last being the schooner Empress of Rockland. Five months ago his health began to fail to such an extent that he was compelled to remain at home. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, Mrs. Josephine Clark, son, Ralph T., and a daughter, Nina A. Deceased was 59 years of age.

MRS. HANNAH L. JACKSON

Mrs. Hannah L. Jackson, who has been in failing health for the past three years, and for the past four months a great and constant sufferer from Bright's disease, died at her home in East Liberty, Wednesday, Jan. 18. Mrs. Jackson was a good, Christian woman and will be greatly missed not only in her own home but in the whole vicinity, as she had a natural gift to administer to the wants of the sick, and was always glad and willing to do all in her power whenever and wherever she was needed. Hers is a wide circle of friends, having always lived near the old school house, boarded the teacher and soothed the woes and sorrows of the school children. That her kindly acts have not been forgotten was proven to her during her sickness in the way of post card showers, letters, gifts, etc.

A neighborhood we feel that we have had a true friend taken from our midst; and we unite in sympathy for the bereaved family which consists of an aged husband, Joel Jackson, two daughters, Mrs. Nettie Daggett of Belfast, and Effie M. Jackson, who lived with and faithfully watched over and cared for her mother during her long months of suffering. She also leaves four grandchildren to whom she was greatly attached.

She was the daughter of James and Meabable (Lewis) Boynton, and is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Rodell Packard of Northport, Mrs. Harrison Davis of this place and Mrs. William Morse of Palermo. Her age was 68 years, 1 month, 3 days. Funeral services were from her home, Saturday, Jan. 20 at 2 p. m. Rev. E. A. Winslow officiated.

IF DEBILITATED YOU NEED A NEW SUPPLY OF BLOOD

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Are Unequalled As a Blood-Builder And Will Cure You As They Did This Sufferer.

The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in general debility lies in their direct response to the needs of the blood. Their work is to make new blood. That they do this well is shown by the gradual disappearance of the symptoms and the return of color and health. They lay the foundation for permanent health in the future.

Mr. Peter Hall, of No. 108 Ferry street, Hoboken, N. J., who

Hundreds of people will soon be ordering their Spring Clothes.

How many new customers will come to us? We hope a great many.

Every season we try to make our garments so well that they will advertise for themselves and bring new customers, and we have every reason to believe that they do. The foundation of good clothes is Good Wool Fabric and all goods used in our suits are the Ellison Fabrics known the world over for their good quality.

Starting with all wool foundation our garments are built up by the finest workmanship.

Everything is done well and thoroughly from the drafting of the patterns to the sewing on of the buttons. It is not a question with us how cheaply the suit can be made but how well it can be done, and it must be done well enough to please the wearer and to please him exceedingly.

These Fabrics and samples of our work can be seen at our

NOTICE

The Corporators of the Thomaston Savings Bank are hereby notified that their Annual Meeting will be held at their banking rooms, on Tuesday, March 7, 1911, at 1.30 o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose of choosing a board of trustees for the ensuing year and transacting other business that may properly come before them.

Per order, CHAS. H. CUSHING, Clerk of the Corporation, Thomaston, Feb. 4, 1911.

CHRISTOPHER PRINCE

Death of a Well Known Thomaston Man—He Had Been President of National Bank.

Christopher Prince, for many years president of the Thomaston National Bank, and otherwise prominent in the affairs of that town, died Sunday morning at 1 o'clock. He had been falling gradually for a number of months, death being due to a general breaking up.

Mr. Prince was born July 31, 1822. For many years he was secretary of the Georges Insurance Co. Moving to New York he engaged in the brokerage business. From there he went to St. Catherine's Island off the coast of Georgia, and commenced as a cotton planter, but ill-health compelled his retirement from that occupation. Returning north he entered the boot business in Spencer, Mass., which he gave up after a few years and returned to Thomaston, where he occupied the old homestead with his granddaughter, Mrs. Ralph G. Whitney.

In addition to serving as president of the Thomaston National Bank he was president of the Prince Vessel Co., a position which he held at the time of his death.

He was a devout student of Emanuel Swedenborg's Arcana, believing the right way, if not the only way, to full knowledge of the Scriptures was a life in accordance with their requirements.

The memory of his character in Thomaston, and among his friends, is as happy as the exalted dream of Swedenborg. The many estates he administered in his native town and the numerous wards for whom he was guardian, all attest to his elements of integrity and trustworthiness.

Mr. Prince was married in 1846 to Marion W. Webb, who died in 1884. He is survived by one son Edmund Webb Prince, a steamship commander, whose home is in Tampa, Fla.

The Prince genealogy is traced back to Rev. John Prince who preached in East Stafford, Berkshire, England, early in the 17th century. The church is still in existence.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2 p. m.

The New York 5 & 10 cent Store fire, water and smoke sale will commence this Saturday morning, at 8 o'clock. Tremendous cut in prices will be made.

It's a Fine Exposition

Methodist's Mammoth Food Fair Opened Last Night
in a Blaze of Glory--Many Samples, but Bushel Baskets are Barred.The fifth annual food fair under the auspices of the Methodist Society opened at the Arcade last night, it was the universal verdict of those present that the exposition is going to be a success. Every inch of floor space allotted to exhibits has been taken, and the booths have been arranged in an extremely attractive manner. A continuous program will entertain the patrons, whether they go afternoon or evening, and it is the apparent intention of most persons to do both.The splendid exhibit of the Street Railway occupies the center of the hall,
and its presence is doubly welcome because of the brilliant and myriad lights which diffuse their glory over the other booths and make an illumination worth seeing. The Courier-Gazette reporter went the grand rounds, and this is what he found:The Rockland Produce Co., explaining the merits of Harpers lemon pie and custard pie fillings. The booth is under the charge of Mrs. Lucia Burpee and William J. Ryan. Those who sampled Mrs. Burpee's lemon pies last evening unhesitatingly declared they tasted "moreish."V. F. Studley, exhibiting Kineo

Mrs. Ella Lurvey, and Mrs. A. W. Gregory.Rising & Anderson, bakers, have a very tempting exhibit consisting of 100
varieties of plain and fancy cooking, the kind that looks fit to melt in the mouth. Mr. Rising is in charge assisted by Miss Eva Orbeton.The Camden Woolen Co. is a new exhibitor this year, making a fine display of suitings, overcoats, dress goods, etc., and demonstrating that we can manufacture goods that are as good as the best here in Knox county. F.
A. Packard is in charge, assisted by Mrs. John Matthews.Winlow, Rand & Watson are exhibiting High Life coffee and sampling Winslow's Chop tea. The booth is one of the prettiest at the fair thanks to the lifelike morning glories manufactured for its decoration by Miss fail to attract much attention.The Epworth League, always in evidence at the Methodist fairs' and ever ready to give a good financial account of itself. Cocoa, coffee, cake and sandwiches are going into the mouths of many willing patrons. Dr. R. W. Bickford has charge of the booth, with new assistants for each night.A regular Lindsey grove grotto is located in the northern corner of the Arcade and thither through the ice cream "fans." Mrs. Annie Hanson comes in charge, assisted by Mrs. Fred Lurvey, Miss Mildred Dow and Mrs. Mildred Simmons.The admirable qualities of "Never-shrink" are demonstrated by Mrs. Volney Follett, a department which especially interests the women-folks.Alvah H. Staples is there with the goods, to wit: Hires root beer, popcorn, orangeade, and Allen's confectionery. Mr. Staples is assisted by the members of his family and C. C. Bulmer.The 20th century fish pond, Leeman

and Colcord proprietors, contains lots of city novelties. The water is warm and "Pansy" invites the patrons to come in.The Valley City Milling Co. of Grand Rapids, Mich., demonstrates the merits of Lily White flour. H. H. Stover is in charge, with Mrs. Stover as demonstrator and Mrs. John W. Thomas at the range.Delano, Potter & Co. of Boston demonstrate Bunker Hill coffee and Jungle Chop tea. H. E. Berry of Boston is in charge, and Mrs. S. W. Lawry and Miss Beulah Lawry are demonstrators.The Kallach Furniture Co. has a large booth filled with the well known Herald
rangers. The proprietors, Ralph E.
Kallach and John E. Stevens alternate in charge and are assisted by Allie Achorn and Miss Jessie Weeks. Mr.
Regan does the baking. The stranger in the booth is Ross Perkins of Taunton, Mass., range inspector. The Kal-lach Furniture has a booth elsewhere in the hall, where the Edison phonograph is demonstrated.A. C. McLoon & Co. have a corner booth fronted with a conspicuous sign which reads "Texas Co." This is the name of the Standard Oil Co.'s new branch here with A. C. McLoon & Co.
as agents. The exhibit includes chrystaline and lubricating oils, while the firm advertises another branch of its business by showing electric binacle boxes, searchlights, etc. David G.
Hodgkins is in charge, but Mayor Mc-Loon is not far away when business is rushing.The Pillsbury Flour Mills Co. is telling over again the old, old, story of how there's nothing like "Pillsbury's Best." John C. Cobb, Jr., manager for Maine, is in charge, assisted by George
W. Tennant of Portland. Mrs. Eliza
Hovey does the baking.Colburn's Mustard has the same booth it had last year, and there's an old acquaintance in charge, H. Barca-lo, who is the wide-awake chap that ever slipped out of Philadelphia. His mustards and high grade spices are exhibited in revolving-top canisters. Kit Smith Tolman is demonstrator.The Fairbanks company exhibits its "famous five" soap products. In charge of the booth are J. S. Goodway, general salesman, and W. H. T. Enwright, special salesman.The Rockland, Thomaston & Camden Street Railway display of gas and electric appliances is the best that has ever been given in this state. The management has laid itself out to give a practical demonstration of what gas and electricity will do for the enjoyment of mankind. The numerous appliances, for labor saving are surprising, not alone as labor savers, but also as cost savers. Believers in Darwinism certainly can see what a great evolution has taken place in the last ten years.
It is really astounding to a person that has not kept up in the race.Take gas and electricity for instance.
The old-style gas-burners used from five to six feet of gas per hour and gave the light that 16 or 20 tallow candles would give. The new burners consume the same amount of gas, and will give you from 150 to 160 candle power. In electricity the old-style 16
C. P. lamp, which consumes about 56 cents per hour, cost three-fourths of a cent. The Mazda lamp gives 50-candle power for the same cost. The electric power is doing wonders for the house.For instance the electric sad iron, the mangle, the electric renovator, which cleans the house without moving and breaking up the house, costing only a few cents in power, and saving many dollars and family lars. The electric washing machine will do your washing for a few cents. Then there are numerous other electric appliances, all having their value and place in the house.The display of gas meters is a show in itself. It is self evident that the company is determined that every gas consumer shall know what a gas meter is and what it will do. One of the meters is made of plate glass, so that it does not require the X-Ray to show up its internal organs. There is a compact meter that will tell at any time in the 24 hours when gas is used and also the amount. The prepay meter is very instructive. The meter is cut open so that you are able to see your quarter going through the meter and registering the amount of gas that you get.The penny prepay meter is a novelty.
This meter shows you the amount of gas that you get for one penny. This type of a meter is very largely used in Europe. The electric gas ironing machine attracts much attention by its fine work that it does. Mr. Lamson is the expert demonstrator of the laundry department. All should avail themselves of this fine and instructive exhibit.Last night's entertainment was furnished by Sanborn's orchestra and the Colonial ladies quartet of Boston. The Twin City male quartet, advertised for the opening night, cancelled, and the committee counted itself very fortunate in getting the Colonial dancers, who will be heard in vocal and instrumental numbers again this afternoon and evening.Knox county grocers will be special guests this afternoon. Tomorrow night
the Grand Army night, and Thursday afternoon the baby show takes place.
In fact there's something all the time,
up to the closing hour next Saturday evening.The electrical display on Spring street tells where the fair holds forth.
But of course you know.

The Climax, presented in the Bangor Opera House last night to a good sized audience, proved a delicate, graceful, pleasing little play, of decided and refreshing personality. It is appealing and effective in its simplicity; it is artistic in every line; it has a certain charm which crosses the footlights, but it is not easy to describe. Built upon a musical theme, its music is so interwoven with its plot that the one is dependent upon the other--yet this is purely a drama. Do we make ourselves understood? If not, it is because The Climax is unlike any play that we recall. It belongs to a new school, but a most agreeable one.Juliette Atkinson, who leads the small but capable cast, can both act
and sing, her voice being a beautifully clear and remarkably high soprano-- its top note is a wonder.Yes, The Climax is surely as curious and unrepeatable a thing as ever drifted into Bangor on the dramatic current. Its originality is obvious from the rise of the curtain, but its first act lacks vitality--it leaves you unresponsive. The second act, however, grabs and even thrills, while the third leads up to a climax--thus justifying the title--as unexpected as it is ingenious.--Bangor Daily News.The entire bill offered by manager

A First Team in Game With Rockport--Junior Contest One-Sided.The local basketball season opened in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Friday evening with a double-header, in which Rockport came out second best.The big game between Rockland Y.
M. C. A. and Rockport Y. M. C. A. was a "thriller." The home team made a poor start, and Captain Marshall attributed it to the fact that the uniforms of the two teams were almost identical.
Operations were suspended until the Rockland players could swap jerseys with the members of the Junior team.When they returned to the hall clad in red jerseys the contrast was sufficiently striking to suit Earle or anybody else.
Rockland stock took an immediate rise,
and at the end of the first half the score stood 15 to 8 in its favor.Rockport came back strong and for a while played Marshall's five to a standstill. At one time the visitors were four points in the lead. Fouls narrowed the breach until the teams were only a single point apart. With only a few seconds remaining Gary scored the winning goal. It was a dramatic finish, and naturally disappointing to Rockport which had previously lost a game to Rockland by one point. The teams are well matched, and on a neutral surface
it would be difficult to pick the winner.The summary:

A good soap at a fair price.

No, madam, soaps are not "all alike." They differ in size, shape, quality and price; also in what they do and the way they do it.

The ideal soap is a soap that is of convenient shape and good quality, and, at the same time, sells at a fair price.

Lenox Soap fulfills these requirements.

Scene from "The Climax" at the Rockland Theatre, Wednesday February 8.

"The Climax," which appears at Rockland Theatre Wednesday, Feb. 8, is claimed to be the only successful drama which entwines its theme around a musical motive. The dominant personage is Luigi Gelfanti, a poor, kindly old Italian singing master. Pietro, his son, is a composer, swarthy, hot tempered, sometimes morose. A third, whose fate gives the play its propulsive force, is Adelina von Hagen, pupil of old Luigi who has come from a western town bringing with her ambitions to become a prima donna. John Raymond, a young doctor who loves Adelina, but who has no patience with her ambitions. These characters you see in the gray monotony of their half-starved lives. There is an enticing pathos in the little drama which seems to clutch at your heart strings.

The story is simple. Adelina is in New York taking music lessons. She is poor and it is a struggle. She is persuaded to make her home with the poor Luigi. She lightens the little home. Luigi discovers the gradual development of her wonderful sweet voice and it gives him joy but to Pietro the presence of the young girl in the house gives unrest. He has fallen in love with his father's pupil. He is writing a composition "The Song of the Soul." It is his inspiration.

THE HANSCOM HOSPITAL A NOTABLE INSTITUTION.

Completion of Annex Gives It Accommodations for Sixteen Patients at One Time—One Hundred Operations Performed There in Past Seven Months.—A Fine Staff and Splendid Equipment—The School for Nurses.

The Orient street annex of the Hanscom hospital was placed in commission a few days ago, and attention was again directed to one of the finest institutions of its kind in the state. Originated as a private hospital, on a small scale, it has completely outgrown the expectations of its founder, and is now incorporated under the laws of the state, with its policy changed from a private to a general hospital.

The Hanscom hospital is located at the corner of Park and Union streets in a large double house, owned by the Spear estate. The eastern half is occupied by Dr. Hanscom as a residence and the other half of the large structure is devoted wholly to the purposes of the hospital.

The first floor contains the same arrangement of rooms that the old hospital had, the suite comprising a reception room, private office, drug room, nurses' dining room and kitchen. The laundry is located in the basement. In the private office is the X-ray outfit, known as a Campbell high frequency, and very powerful. Dr. Hanscom has arranged, however, to exchange it for a Kelly-Koett coil, one of the most powerful on the market.

The hallways, floors and stairways have all been equipped with hospital rubber matting, which not only have the best of qualifications for cleanliness, but act as noise absorbers. There is a thorough system of electric lighting throughout the hospital, which is heated by a hot air and hot water combination system.

The woman's ward is on the second floor and has accommodations for four beds. There are also three private rooms. The furnishings are all new, and the beds are equipped with hair mattresses. At the head of each bed is suspended an electric cord which connects with an annunciator.

The operating room is what surgeons term a "gem," and the claim is made that it has no superior this side of Boston in the way of appliances. The surgeon's lavatory is made from solid porcelain for that purpose. The fittings are all of glass and tubular enameled steel. There are hot and cold water sterilizers and a steam sterilizer of burnished copper, in which dressings and other articles connected with operations are sterilized by live steam at a pressure of 30 pounds and a temperature of 274 F. The instrument cabinet, 72 inches high, 44 inches wide and 18 inches deep, contains every instrument necessary for any class of major operations. Among the articles found in this cabinet are a hygrometer, giving the relative degrees of humidity, and an instrument sterilizer.

The supply closet, adjacent to the operating room, contains all the articles used in modern surgery. The reporter was shown sealed tubes containing sutures—silk and catgut, silkworm gut and kangaroo tendon—sterilized in boiling alcohol under 30 pounds pressure. An oxygen tank sits at the operator's finger tips ready to call back the flickering spark of life.

The operating table is of the Kny-Scheerer type, made of solid five-inch plate glass and enameled steel, permitting all postures necessary for modern operations on any part of the body. Suspended directly over the table are two adjustable electric lights of 100 candlepower each. The walls and ceiling of the operating room are enameled with five coats of enamel paint, giving the best possible light and absolute cleanliness. The operating room is ready for any kind of a case at any hour of the day or night.

The third floor of the hospital is a duplicate of the second, minus the operating room.

The completion of the annex has largely expanded the scope and usefulness of the hospital, providing, as it does, four new private rooms, a female ward with six beds, bathroom, linen room and laundry. The private rooms on the second floor have blue tinted walls and light colored ceilings, this combination being restful to the eyes of the patients. The new bathroom and the one on the lower floor have open, sanitary plumbing. The floors of all the rooms, together with the corridors, are laid with a heavy grade of linoleum. The male ward has been transferred from the third floor to the Park street side of the second floor.

Not the least of the modern improvements installed at the Hanscom hospital is an automatic heater, which furnishes hot water at command. This was installed by the Rockland Hardware Co., as was also the Buier heater, which keeps the entire hospital at the required temperature.

All of the hospital furnishings, including beds and bedding, are of the best material obtainable.

Sixteen patients may now be cared for in the Hanscom hospital at one time. The records show a total of nearly 100 major operations since last July; most of them being abdominal cases.

When The Courier-Gazette reporter visited the hospital Wednesday there were eight patients, but it was stated that the number would be increased to 12 within a few days. One of the patients was a male infant, which first saw light of day beneath the hospital's roof. A specialty of maternity cases will be made at this institution in the future. Mother and child receive expert care, and the results cannot fail to be most satisfactory.

The founder and proprietor is Dr. Walter V. Hanscom, who comes of a family that has achieved distinction in several professions. He graduated from the Hahnemann medical college in Philadelphia in 1890 and has been in steady practice since that time, having devoted some 15 years to hospital work. This eventually meant the dropping of his general practice, and his time is now given wholly to surgical work and tuberculosis treatment.

During the past three years Dr. Hanscom has devoted much time to literary research in conjunction with original work. As a result of his efforts in this line there has lately been conferred upon him the honorary degree of A. M. by Rollins College, Winter

Park, Fla., an unsought distinction that he highly prizes.

The staff of the Hanscom hospital is now made up as follows: W. V. Hanscom, A. M., M. D., Surgeon; R. J. Wasgatt, M. D., Assistant Surgeon; A. P. Heald, M. D., Assistant Surgeon; N. W. Emerson, M. D., Consulting Surgeon; Miss A. E. Lander, Superintendent.

Miss Lander, who holds the responsible position of superintendent, is a graduate of the Maine general hospital, Portland, and has been with Dr. Hanscom's institution about three and one-half years, exhibiting marked fitness for her duties, and making a new convert every time a patient comes beneath her charge. An office has recently been fitted up for her use on the second floor.

A training school for nurses, with a graded curriculum of study, is another new feature of the hospital. Six pupils are studying there at present, and in due time will be graduated as professional nurses with the same standing before the law as graduates of the larger state institutions. It is expected that there will be 12 pupil nurses by the coming June.

The course of study includes anatomy, physiology, ethics of nursing, materia medica, special surgical nursing, fever nursing, and food and cookery for the sick.

At last Adelina is permitted to try her voice again. But the golden notes will not come. She tries again. But in the house there is only silence. The little house is hushed in sorrow. The womanly strength of Adelina is all that keeps her from self-destruction.

The audience sits breathless through the final act, a synopsis of which is withheld that it may not spoil the patron's interest.

In 100 years of use nothing has ever been found to take its place. Take inwardly for Cramps, Cholera Morbus, Coughs, Colds, etc.

On sale everywhere.

25c and 50c bottles.

I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass.

Park, Fla., an unsought distinction that he highly prizes.

The staff of the Hanscom hospital is now made up as follows: W. V. Hanscom, A. M., M. D., Surgeon; R. J. Wasgatt, M. D., Assistant Surgeon; A. P. Heald, M. D., Assistant Surgeon; N. W. Emerson, M. D., Consulting Surgeon; Miss A. E. Lander, Superintendent.

Miss Lander, who holds the responsible position of superintendent, is a graduate of the Maine general hospital, Portland, and has been with Dr. Hanscom's institution about three and one-half years, exhibiting marked fitness for her duties, and making a new convert every time a patient comes beneath her charge. An office has recently been fitted up for her use on the second floor.

A training school for nurses, with a graded curriculum of study, is another new feature of the hospital. Six pupils are studying there at present, and in due time will be graduated as professional nurses with the same standing before the law as graduates of the larger state institutions. It is expected that there will be 12 pupil nurses by the coming June.

The course of study includes anatomy, physiology, ethics of nursing, materia medica, special surgical nursing, fever nursing, and food and cookery for the sick.

A FAIR OFFER

Your Money Back If You're Not Satisfied.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty broad statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair to you?

A most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. Their active principle is a recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless and tasteless; very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. This ingredient does not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember you can get them in Rockland only at our store. 12 tablets 10 cents; 36 tablets 25 cents.—The Rexall Store. Fred H. Call's, Main street, Rockland.

EAST LIBERTY

Mary Daggett of Belfast is staying a few weeks with her grandfather, Joel Jackson.

The logging crew which has been at work in the woods for A. T. McCorsion the past few weeks, have returned to their homes to get out their winter's wood.

Our school closed Jan. 31, after a successful term of nine weeks taught by Miss Wilhelmina Eastman.
